Adult Disability Medical Healthcare (ADMH) appoints Tamara Pursley as new Executive Director/Clinic Director

Atlanta, GA – October 27, 2025 - Adult Disability Medical Healthcare (ADMH) announced today the appointment of Tamara Pursley as its new Executive Director/Clinic Director as of October 1, 2025. With more than three decades of non-profit and for-profit experience, she brings a broad range of skills to the role.

"I am honored to join ADMH and work with the board and staff to build on the organization's strong foundation to serve the disability community's health and wellness needs," she said. "The health disparities for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities are real and we seek to help eliminate the barriers faced during transition from pediatric to adult healthcare services."

Tamara has a proven track record of relationship building, fostering partnerships and increasing program impact. At GLOBAL Down Syndrome Foundation, Tamara served as Events Senior Director, managing two marquee events, the award-winning Be Beautiful Be Yourself Fashion Show and the Accept Ability Gala. She worked for nine years at the National Down Syndrome Congress, supporting individuals with Down syndrome, their families, and the professionals who serve them with accurate and up-to-date information across the lifespan; cultivated key partnerships and collaborations with local, regional, and national organizations; and planned and executed the largest annual convention specifically for the Down syndrome community. She also worked for more than 5 years as the Operations Director for The Civic League for Regional Atlanta and 10 years as the Executive Assistant to the President & CEO of Futren Hospitality. Janice Nodvin is stepping back from the role, becoming Co-Founder Emeritus. Her vision and contributions to the successes of ADMH are immeasurable. She has been instrumental in ensuring a smooth transition. "I am so happy to pass the torch to my friend and colleague of nearly 20 years to see ADMH continue to grow and thrive". ADMH will honor Mrs. Nodvin at an upcoming event.

"We are thrilled to welcome Tamara to lead ADMH into its next chapter," said Board Chair, Radha Pilla. "Her expertise and enthusiasm are exactly what we need to achieve our strategic goals and expand our reach."
